

GEN. VALASCO MAY START ANOTHER MEXICAN REVOLT

Commander Defeated by Rebels at Torreon Re- ported Discontented

MUCH PLOTTING IN ARMY

Many of the Federal Army Offi- cers Are Dissatisfied with Huerta and His Warfare

CONDITIONS AT VERA CRUZ

VERA CRUZ, May 4.—The outbreak of another military revolt in Mexico headed by General Jose Refugio Velasco who was recently driven from Torreon by Francisco Villa would not cause any great surprise in the federal capital, according to conservative observers among the refugees who arrived here today. General Velasco is said to be gravely discontented concerning the failure of the government in Mexico City to support him properly in the defense of Torreon and he is declared to have stated that he would never again lead a column of troops against the rebels.

The fall of Torreon and the subsequent disaster to the federal troops are asserted by General Velasco to have been entirely due to the failure of the war department to heed his appeal for small arm ammunition at a time when he said it was perfectly feasible for it to have reached him.
It is asserted that there is much plotting among the federal army officers, many of whom are declared to be dissatisfied with General Huerta and his conduct of military affairs.
General Javier de Mounier and General Carlos Hidalgo who were sent to the relief of General Velasco at Torreon are reported to have been found by General Velasco hiding under freight cars during the heavy fighting at San Pedro de las Colonias after the fall of Torreon and to have been upbraided by him for the cowardice. Another officer who reported that his station should be captured when he learned that the position had been abandoned without sufficient cause. Another officer was charged with cowardice in the face of the enemy committed suicide while General Velasco was rebuking him.
In spite of his other difficulties General Velasco declared he could have won the battle at Torreon if the war department had not failed to keep him supplied with ammunition. Of the 6,000 troops he started out with, General Velasco succeeded in reaching Saltillo with 1,200.

Many had deserted but his casualties had been very great. Altogether he says, he withstood eighty three attacks by the rebels.

General Genevevo de la O, the most important of Emiliano Zapata's commanders, has, according to refugees, cast in his lot with General Huerta.
With 1,000 of his men he has taken up quarters in the barracks at Cuernavaca alongside the federal regulars.

Zapata himself is said not to have indicated definitely whether he will enter into an alliance with General Huerta but appears to be awaiting the outcome of events and is believed to be holding out until General Villa's forces approach the federal capital.

During the first excitement in Mexico City over the American occupation of Vera Cruz many of the better element of the population enlisted in the regular army. On the first day 8,000 are said to have been enrolled and among them were 86 members of the jockey club who had long been criticised by the native press for their apathy regarding the progress of the revolution. The enthusiasm among the populace soon abated when it was found that some of those enrolled had been sent north to fight against Villa while the government withheld arms from all except those sent against the rebels.

Refugees Praise Governor.

Refugees spoke today in complimentary terms regarding the conduct of Eduardo Irujo, governor of the federal district who has been untiring in his efforts to secure the safety of Americans. During the exciting days when mobs were marching through the streets of the capital, he opposed his authority against that of Jose Maria Lozano, minister of public instruction who was leading a mob. It was stated today that General Huerta had agreed to permit a group of American mine owners to move out of Mexico approximately $500,000 of gold bullion and had promised a guard to any port they might select.

Local Spanish newspapers in Vera Cruz now come out boldly against General Huerta and are publishing portraits of the late President Madraz, who they call a national hero.
Many country folk are moving in toward Vera Cruz so as to obtain the protection of the American soldiers.
They come in groups carrying bun-

PRESIDENT SELECTS FEDERAL BOARD

MEMBERS OF FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD ARE NAMED BY WILSON

No Formal Announcement Can Yet Be Made of Appointees as All Have Not Yet Accepted—New Board Must Set New Banking System of Country in Motion.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—President Wilson tonight had selected the five who together with the secretary of treasury, W. G. McAdoo and the comptroller of currency, John Skelton Williams, are to compose the federal reserve board.

All of those selected had not yet accepted so formal announcement will not be made for another day or two. The men to whom the president has offered places are:

Richard Olney of Boston, Mass., former secretary of state under President Cleveland, to be governor of the board; Paul Moritz Warburg of New York, member of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co; Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago, vice-president of Union Trust company of Chicago and former president and organizer of United States chamber of commerce; W. P. G. Harding of Birmingham, Ala., president of the First National bank of Birmingham, and one of the leading bankers of the south; Dr. Adolph Caspar Miller of San Francisco, now assistant to Secretary Lane of the interior, formerly member of the faculty of Leland Stanford, is an economist and authority of finance. The nominations will be sent to the senate in a few days. As yet Messrs. Olney and Harding have not indicated whether they would accept.

Up to the new board will devolve the task of setting in motion the banking system of the country through the twelve regional reserve banks already selected. Although they will constitute the governing board which is given wide powers to regulate the twelve banks and the issuance of currency. The president had told his friends that he regarded the membership of the board equally as important as that of the supreme court of the United States. The president's selections conform geographically with the provisions of the new law which specifies that no two members of the board shall come from the same regional districts.

No Statement From Olney.

Boston, May 4.—No statement was forthcoming from Richard Olney tonight regarding his appointment as governor of the federal reserve board but an intimate friend stated that there was little doubt that Mr.
Olney would decline. Advanced years and business interests were believed to be factors entering into this decision.

Not Confirmed Until Late.

Dr. Miller's selection was not confirmed until late tonight although the names of the other four were known throughout the day. Dr. Miller holds a professorship in the University of California, and is the author of several publications on finance. Secretary Houston was one of the men whom the president wanted to place on the board but did not wish to make any changes in his cabinet.

INVESTIGATORS UNABLE TO VARY LINCOLN QUOTATION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 4.—In response to a request from the woman's national Sabbath alliance that the alleged quotation from a Lincoln utterance: "As we keep or break the Sabbath, we nobly save or meanly lose the last best hope by which man rises," be placed in Lincoln's home here, Governor Dunne was informed by letter today from Mrs. William H. Danielson, secretary of the association that it was impossible to verify the quotation. Governor Dunne acted as spokesman for the board of trustees of the Lincoln home.

Mrs. Danielson said in her letter:
"To our great disappointment we find it is impossible to verify the quotation in any printed utterance.
The phrase has been used for a generation as a kind of a slogan of Sabbath forces and it had not occurred to us to doubt its authority until you called for its origin."

ISSUES PRIMARIES CALL.

Springfield, Ill., May 4.—Governor Dunne today issued a call for primaries June 27 in the twelfth judicial circuit to nominate candidates for judge of the circuit court and for a special election July 28 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Charles B. Campbell of Kankakee.

The circuit is composed of the counties of Kankakee, Will and Iroquois.

EXPECT REBEL ATTACK.

Eagle Pass, Texas, May 4.—Constitutionalist forces today were sent to Las Vacas Muzquiz and other railroad towns south of Piedras Ne-gras where repairs are being made on the railroads in the direction of Monclova. A constitutionalist attack on Monclova is expected within a few days.

JONES' PLURALITY 4,000.

Springfield, Ill., May 4.—The state canvassing board today announced the official vote cast in the special judicial election in the seventh district. Norman L. Jones, Democrat, was elected over C. S.
Andrus, Republican, by a plurality of 4,000.

UNKNOWN STEAMER DISCOVERED ON FIRE

VESSEL SIGHTED SOUTH OF CAPE RACE WITH NO SIGNS OF LIFE ABOARD

Steamer Seydlitz Makes Discovery of Burning Ship and Sends Out Wireless Calls For Assistance—Believe All Hands Have Been Rescued.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 4.—An unknown steamer, on fire from stem to stern and with no signs of life on board, was discovered 300 miles south of Cape Race today by the Steamer Seydlitz, from Bremen for New York. The Seydlitz immediately called by wireless for assistance and response came from the Franconia fifty miles to the eastward bound for Boston and the Olympia 200 miles to the west headed for New York.

The Seydlitz circled around the burning vessel but the smoke hung so closely about her that her name could not be distinguished. It is believed the vessel caught fire sometime after midnight and that all hands were rescued by some ship which had no wireless.

So far as learned tonight no steamer equipped with wireless reported herself in distress although part of a wireless message picked up from some westbound liner night stated that she was having boiler and engine trouble and was making slow progress into New York.

No further word from the Seydlitz had been received this evening and continued attempts of the wireless stations to communicate with her failed. It was believed that during the night further particulars would be received from the Seydlitz the Franconia of the Olympia.

Pick up Faint Message.

A wireless message tonight from the Sable Island radio station to the Canadian Marine department said that late last night the station picked up part of a message passing between steamers far out on the Atlantic. The faint call said:
"We are on fire, hurry up."

Owing to unfavorable atmospheric conditions nothing more could be obtained, and the names of the vessels could not be learned.

MOTHER AND CHILD KILLED BY CYCLONE AT MAUD, TEXAS

MT. PLEASANT, Tex., May 4.— Mrs. Pearl White and her child were killed at Maud, Texas, and half the houses in the town were destroyed by a cyclone, according to information received here late today. The cyclone also did severe damage at Red Water and near Pittsburgh, Texas, injuring some fourteen persons.

At Red Water six persons were injured and near Pittsburgh four persons were hurt, one probably fatally. It was stated that dwelling houses at Red Water were destroyed.

Three Others Lose Their Lives.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 4.— Three lives were lost and nearly a million dollars worth of property was swept away as a result of the floods yesterday and today on the south Canadian and Cimarron rivers in Western and Southern Oklahoma. Twelve large railroad bridges fell into the streams and bottom land crops for four hundred miles along the Canadian and two hundred miles along the Cimarron were destroyed.

SENDS FUNERAL PLANS TO WASHINGTON FOR APPROVAL

Bodies of American Boys Killed at Vera Cruz Will Arrive on the Cruiser Montana.

New York, May 4.—Captain Gleaves, commandant of the Brooklyn navy yard, sent to Washington today, for approval by the secretary of the navy plans for the funeral of the sailors and marines killed in the occupation of Vera Cruz. The bodies are expected to arrive here on the Cruiser Montana in time for the funeral to take place next Monday.
According to Captain Gleaves' plan, two tugs from the Brooklyn navy yard, escorted by one or more boats of their own militia will act as guard of honor.

When the Montana anchors the tugs will receive the bodies and take them to the Brooklyn navy yard. The caskets will be taken ashore under an escort of marines from the Battalion Texas and naval militia men headed by the officers of the navy yard, army officers from Governor Island, and city officials and conveyed to the campus in front of the marine barracks. The marine band of the yard will play the funeral dirges.
In the open funeral service will be conducted at two o'clock in the afternoon. After the funeral services the bodies will be shipped to the homes of the dead men, the government paying the expenses.

sel was detained at quarantine only a few minutes.

MEMBERS OF CHICAGO BOARD OF EDUCATION RELEASED

Sentence Imposed For Contempt of Court Suspended on Prisoners Promise to Recognize Other Mem- bers.

Chicago, May 4.—Eight members of the Chicago board of education sentenced to thirty days in jail for refusing to obey a court order and recognize four members whose resignations had been accepted after they had refused to vote to elect Mrs.
Ella Flagg Young as superintendent of the schools. They were released tonight after six hours in custody when they promised to obey the order of the court.
The trustees filed a supplementary answer to the contempt petition in which they promised to permit the four ousted members to resume their seats on the board. In the meantime, the order committing them to jail for thirty days will be held in abeyance, according to an announcement of Judge Foell, in whose court the contempt proceedings were heard.

The terms of office of the four trustees to be reinstated will expire July 1st. Friends of Mrs. Young expressed the fear that they would make another effort to effect her removal from the board.
The following members were sentenced by the court: Peter Reinberg, president; Julius Smetanka, Jacob M. Loeb, Dean Walter Sumner, Charles S. Peterson, Ralph C.
Otis, Harry Lipsky and Michael J.
Collins.

The members who will resume their seats are: Henry Huttman, James B. Diebelka, Charles O. Seth-ness and John C. Harding.

ISSUES BANK PERMIT.

Springfield, Ill., May 4.—Auditor of public accounts Brady today issued a permit to George L. Ukso, Anton J. Bierzynski, John Natowski, Stanislaus Marcinkiewicz and Joseph Natowski to organize the New City State Savings bank, Chicago, with a $200,000 capital.

DUNNE APPOINTS JUDGE.

Springfield, Ill., May 4.—Governor Dunne today appointed Edmund J. Jarecki, judge of the municipal court, Chicago, to succeed Judge Fred L. Fake, who resigned.

feller has given millions of dollars, pays a portion of the salaries of six hundred government employees engaged in this work. Senator Kenyon insisted that the federal government had no right to go into a partnership with Rockefeller. "It is no more right for Rockefeller to be paying the employees of the department of agriculture," he said, "than it would be for him to pay the salaries of the members of the supreme court or the senate." Senator Lane said that "some folks believe the curse of God is on every dollar he possesses."

MILLIONAIRE GETS HEAVY SENTENCE

JELKE IS GIVEN SENTENCE OF TWO YEARS AND FINE OF $10,000

Judge Geiger Pronounces Maximum Penalty on Manufacturer of Oleomargarine—Jelke Asks Clemency For His Associates; Taking All Blame Himself.

CHICAGO, May 4.—John F. Jelke, millionaire manufacturer of oleomargarine who was recently convicted with seven of his employees of having violated the federal revenue laws, stood before Judge Geiger in the United States district court today awaiting sentence and asked justice for himself and clemency for his associates.

Jelke was fined $10,000 and sentenced to two years in the Leavenworth penitentiary, the maximum penalty. His co-defendants were fined $2,500 each and execution of all the sentences was stayed by the court for thirty days to permit an appeal.

Called to the bar of the court Jelke asked if he had anything to say before the sentence.
"I have been in business in this community for more than twenty years," was the reply of the chief defendant. "I have had an honorable career. I do not ask anything for myself but what is justice. For the other defendants I ask clemency, as I take the entire responsibility of the case on myself."

Pronouncement of his fine and order of imprisonment followed after the millionaire pleaded for mercy for his employees and accepted his fate without a murmur.

Before sentence was imposed counsel for the defendants argued for a new trial and the federal prosecutor called the attention of the court to the many small dealers who had been heavily fined and imprisoned for the same offense as that charged against John F. Jelke and his associates.

None of the seven fined with Jelke had anything to say when they were sentenced. They are William M.
Steele, general manager of the John F. Jelke company, Harry E. Hitch-ins, salesman; Hugh D. Cameron, Milwaukee representative; D. B. Tul-lis, former salesman; W. L. Lillard, former salesman; William P. Jackson, former manager of George P.
Bran company, taken over by Jelke and Fred Rapp, former salesman for the Braun company. The seven were released on bonds pending the filing of a writ of error in their appeal.

Mr. Jelke's bond was fixed at $20, 000 and that of the other defendants at $5,000 each.

TRIAL OF MARIE GANZ

New York, May 4.—Yesterday I was at the office of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and if I could have got him I would have shot him down like a dog. In these words Marie Ganz voiced her protest against Mr.
Rockefeller, according to the testimony of Irving Ettinger, a police headquarters stenographer, at the trial of Miss Ganz today on a charge of disorderly conduct. The woman was arrested last week after she had made several fruitless attempts to see Mr. Rockefeller in connection with the Colorado Mine Workers strike and had addressed open air meetings. Ettinger testified to two other alleged excerpts from the defendant's speeches. One was:
"If he is not going to stop this slaughter in Colorado, he can run to his father's house and hide, because at the first chance I will get him with a bullet."

The other was:
"Do not make your protestations in kind words or in language. Use dynamite."

Several detectives testified for the prosecution and adjournment was taken until tomorrow afternoon.

If found guilty Miss Ganz will be liable to a maximum penalty of six months in the workhouse.
Not many blocks from the court, Miss Ganz before her arraignment addressed a street gathering verbally attacking Mr. Rockefeller who is in seclusion at the Rockefeller Poca-ntico Hills estate. Several hundred Industrial Workers of the World attempted to enter the court room but were kept out by police reserves at the request of the magistrate.

matic guns and 1,000,000 rounds of

WORK OF DISARMING FIGHTERS PROCEEDS

NEGOTIATIONS FOR SURRENDER OF ARMS BY ALL PARTIES PUSHED

Col. Lockett and Eleventh Cavalry Are Delayed in Arriving at Trinidad by Floods—Matter of Settlement May Rest With Secretary of Labor Wilson.

TRINIDAD, Colo., May 4.—With the arrival of Col. James Lockett, commanding the eleventh United States cavalry, it is expected that the negotiations for the surrender of arms by all parties will be pushed to a conclusion. Colonel Lockett and the men of the eleventh were expected tomorrow but are said to have been delayed by floods. He will be in supreme command of all the regulars in the state. Already the guards of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company at the Walsen and Rouz mines have turned over their guns to the soldiers. In Huerfano county the strikers have agreed to give up their weapons to Captain C. C. Smith on Wednesday. Representatives of both the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and the Victor-American Fuel company have expressed willingness to disarm their guards as rapidly as their mines come under the protection of United States troops.

Up to Secretary of Labor.

Denver, Colo., May 4.—Replying to recent telegraphic and postal correspondence from Dr. Martin D.
Poster, chairman of the house committee on mines and mining officials today suggested that the matter of settling the strike in Colorado may really rest upon secretary of labor Wilson who was present at the conference of operators and mine employes in Governor Ammons' office here last November and that he had agreed at that time that the proposition for settling the strike advanced by the governor and accepted by the operators was plausible.

Twenty other mine operators sent a long telegram to President Wilson defining John D. Rockefeller's position in the matter and explaining his lack of authority in any affair connected with the twenty undersigned companies. They deplored the implication that John D. Rockefeller or his son were in any way responsible for the strike in Colorado. The message to Dr. Foster was signed by the officers of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, Victor-American Fuel company and the Rocky Mountain Fuel company.

Trial of Marie Ganz.

New York, May 4.—Yesterday I
was at the office of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and if I could have got
Ganz voiced her protest against Mr.
Rockefeller, according to the testi-
trial of Miss Ganz today on a charge
to see Mr. Rockefeller in connection with the Colorado Mine Workers
strike and had addressed open air
fendant's speeches. One was:
"If he is not going to stop this

The other was:

Several detectives testified for
was taken until tomorrow afternoon.

six months in the workhouse.
Not many blocks from the court,
addressed a street gathering verbally
seclusion at the Rockefeller Poca-

HUERTA APPOINTS RABASA TO CONFER WITH MEDIATORS

erican government until this delicate point was adjusted.

By this procedure the mediators would avoid the problems of a qui-pro quo of Huerta or elimination of the Mexican dictator as conditions precedent to mediation, which diplomatic skeptics were early sure to wreck matters.

Hold Three Long Sessions.

The mediators held three long sessions during the day and reported that they were moving steadily ahead. They expressed satisfaction with the class of men chosen by Huerta as his delegates to confer with them. The appointment of Rabasa brings a big man into the proceedings. He is about 60 years old, a lawyer and one of the foremost authorities on international law in Mexico. He is one of the closest advisers of General Huerta and it has been said in Mexico that he was in the combination with Huerta and Felix Diaz which disposed of the Madero government.
The other Huerta delegate, Senor Garza is a young lawyer and was secretary to the vice-president under Porfirio Diaz.

The mediators will continue in complete charge of the plans of settlement and will not take the delegates from the different parties in general council with them. The delegates will be merely advisors, while the three South American envoys will constitute the international tribunal trying to work out the problem.

Secretary Bryan Satisfied.

Secretary Bryan expressed satisfaction today at the general outlook of things.

He conferred with President Wilson during which the status of mediation and the Mexican situation generally was gone over. The only word from Carranza during the day was an inquiry from him to the mediators as to just what functions the delegate, which they had asked Carranza to name, would have. He desired to know if he was naming a delegate just what powers he would exercise and that they should not be extended to dealings between Huerta and Carranza, which according to the constitutional leaders' position, are entirely outside the scope of the mediators' work.

During the day it was announced that President Wilson planned to go to Brooklyn on Monday and meet the Montana, which is bringing back the bodies of the American marines killed at Vera Cruz and deliver an address. Should public business require the continued presence of President Wilson at Washington, Secretary Daniels will speak in the name of the president. There have been some features to lighten the serious excerpts of the proceedings of the mediators.

Monahan-Thompson.

A message to the Journal from East St. Louis tells of the marriage of Miss Mary Thompson to Mr.
Frank Monahan last week at Sacred Heart church. Miss Thompson was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson and formerly lived in this city. The ceremony was said by Rev. Father Gillmaster, pastor of the church and was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Catherine Carey, and the groom by his brother, Ray Monahan. The church was charmingly decorated with flowers. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the Thompson home and all engaged in games and music and dancing. The bride and groom departed Thursday morning for Chicago, the former home of the groom. There they expected to remain for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Monahan will be at home to their friends in East St.
Louis after May 15.

Glasgow-Patton.

Cards have been received, announcing the recent wedding of Allen H. Glasgow and Miss Alma Patton at Sheshone Valley, Powell, Wyoming. Mr. Glasgow was for several years connected with the Jacksonville high school serving part of the time as teacher and later as principal. He left a great many friends in this vicinity who will extend sincere congratulations.

Brook-Brown.

Announcement has been made of the recent marriage of Mrs. Katherine Lucy Brown and Mr. Harold Hemingway Brook. The ceremony was solemnized April 2nd at the Church of the Holy Faith, Santa Fe, N. M. Mr. Brook who spent his boy-hood in Jacksonville has for a number of years been a resident of New Mexico and has been very successful in his business work there. He is a young man who is held in very high regard in Jacksonville.

Meredith-Wetzel.

The marriage of L. Wiley Meredith, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Meredith of Springfield and Miss Ethel Wetzel, daughter of Mrs. E. G. Wet-zel of Beardstown, took place recently in Beardstown, Rev. George Hensey officiating. The groom is a graduate of the Springfield high school and also attended Wesleyan university. He is now on the repor-terial staff of the Springfield Record.

Bartlett-Bearsley.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bartlett have received word of the marriage of their son Loran Bartlett to Miss Isadora Bearsley, which took place Saturday at Dubuque, Iowa. The groom has always made Jacksonville his home and before leaving here last July was employed in Capps Woolen Mills. He has a great many friends in Jacksonville and all will be surprised to learn of his marriage.

The Dubuque Journal in speaking of the wedding, says: ‘Miss Isadora Bearsley and Mr. Loran Bartlett, both of this place, were united in marriage at the Presbyterian parsonage in Dubuque last Saturday, Rev.
Thomas McGregor performing the ceremony.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Louisa Bearsley and was born and reared in Hanover. She is a modest unassuming young lady with many friends here who will wish her well in her matrimonial career.

The groom is not as well known here as he has not been a resident of Hanover very long, but we understand he is a steady industrious young man, who is employed in the Hanover Woolen Mfg. Co.

The young couple expect to make Hanover their home for the present.
The Journal joins the many friends of the contracting parties in congratulations and best wishes for a long, prosperous and happy marital voyage.

ATHLETIC MEET OF CENTRAL ILLINOIS TOWNS

A Combination Which Would Comprise Some of the Larger Cities Talk Among Leagues.—W. I. H.
S. L. Beats Many Corn Belt Records.

In looking over the results of the Western Illinois high school league records and those of the Corn Belt it is noted that the meet here in Jacksonville was a faster one than that held by the Corn Belt, which included towns as large as Bloomington, Springfield, Normal and Decatur.
The records show that the W.
I. H. S. L. made better records in the following events, 50 yard dash, one mile run, 100 yard dash, 440 yard dash, 220 yard low hurdles, 220 yard dash, pole vault, and in some of the other events were close.

Springfield has sounded a note of discontentment because they won the meet and are looking about to get in faster company. A larger proportion of the student body feels that if they had greater competition they would bring athletics up to a higher standard.

There are some members of the W. I. H. S. L. who feel that some of the towns take so little interest in the athletic part of the meet that they ought to be dropped. Some of the towns only win from two to five points and some have not annexed a single point. There would be a stronger stimulus to stay in a league if a certain standard had to be maintained in the way of more men entering the meet.

A gentleman who is greatly interested in athletics in Jacksonville suggested that it might not be a bad thing for schools to enter one or smaller meets but that there ought to be one good big meet in Central Illinois which would bring together the strongest athletes of this section of the country. He suggested the following towns: Quincy, Alton, White Hall, Peoria Manual, Peoria High, Bloomington, Normal, Decatur, Springfield, Jacksonville, and Beardstown. This would make a strong combination and determine could get together and determine where was the best place to hold the meet and it might be arranged to hold it in a different city each year.

If you have a bill against the T.
P. A. send it to C. F. Ethic.

BOARD OF EDUCATION HELD REGULAR SESSION MONDAY

Various Matters Related to the Construction of the Eighth Grade Building Considered—Miss Lyman Resigns From High School Faculty.

The board of education met in regular session last evening and attended the routine business. The resignation of Miss Henrietta Lyman, teacher in the high school was accepted. The matter of the occupancy of the new building was discussed. Member Hall sounded a note of warning regarding expense. The clerk was instructed to notify the architect to approve the plumbers' bill.

The Proceedings.

The board of education met last night in regular session. Member Bayington and the mayor absent. Member Hall was chosen chairman of the meeting. The minutes of the last regular and subsequent meetings were read and approved.

All properly approved bills were ordered paid.

The resignation of Miss Henrietta Lyman, teacher in the high school, who is to engage in other work was read and accepted.

Superintendent Gore asked the members of the board to go over the new building and decide how they were going to have it occupied and whether they meant to have the seventh grade occupy the building also. He said he would go over it with them if they desired.

Regarding the occupancy of the seventh grade it was suggested that it would entail an additional cost and Member Hall said it was time to call a halt as funds were getting very low in the building treasury and much more expense would entail another appropriation and as the last estimate had not been approved they would do well to wait and see where they were before assuming additional cost. Considerable informal discussion followed.

The Jacksonville Plumbing and Heating Co., was also represented and wished some action taken on the work and estimate and extras and the clerk was instructed to notify Architect Clarence Buckingham to make out a list of the extras done and approve the same so that a warrant could be drawn for the company.

The matter of hardware was also brought up and informally discussed. It was decided that the hardware should be of suitable design and finish and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for that material for the new building.

William Bartlett was present and presented the matter of lightning rods for the new building and showed samples of his material.

Adjourned.

IS INVESTIGATED

Report is Made by East State Street Property Owners as to Findings in Another City.

The paving committee of East State street consisting of Dr. J. W. Haingrove, W. S. Ehle and Frank J. Garland has returned from Peoria where they made an investigation of the various pavements used in that city. Their report follows:

At a recent public meeting, comprising a considerable part of the property owners or their representatives, of the frontage of East State street wherein were discussed various types of street paving thought to be desirable for that street, the undersigned were appointed a committee to investigate the various kinds of pavement and report their conclusions.

After visiting the city of Peoria, through the courtesy of Commissioner of Public Works Sherman W. Eckley, we saw many miles of Peoria's streets and pavements. While our committee with those present at our public meeting were unanimously in favor of asphalt originally, we left Peoria convinced that it would be unsatisfactory for a street or heavy traffic, particularly when traveled by a street railway. It is conceded that on account of the schools and hospitals on this street as noiseless a pavement as possible be constructed, and investigation along this line proved the new "cresote wood block" to be practically noiseless as well as being very durable. Asphalt pavement, while quiet to wheeled vehicles, is not so to horses' feet. Moreover, asphalt unaided with scientific accuracy, soon shows defects, and heavy expenses of upkeep begin to appear. We were shown such streets in Peoria that had been entirely laid for the second and third time in residence districts of light traffic which showed a very discreditable appearance even after two years wear. The wood block has not been in use long enough to state fully its desirability, but it looks well after a few years use, maintains a smooth, easily cleaned and sanitary surface, is noiseless, may cover the whole street surface between the street car rails and at the sides of the street, permits easy repair and cheaper upkeep. It makes a uniform and handsome appearing pavement and seems to be durable. Its chief objection will be its expense, which is something more than either brick or asphalt. Next to wood block paving we would recommend brick as being more durable, easier repaired and cheaper. Of brick pavements the small brick has proved superior by far among the pavements examined. We recommend the Berea sandstone for curbing, having been convinced of its superiority over all others.

Putting on the Fat

Out on my farm I am giving a practical demonstration of what can be accomplished with the Wood's Grain Softener.

There are 43 cattle in the bunch. Each steer is getting a peck of corn daily. It is ground, cob and all and then cooked. In addition to the corn, each steer gets about nine pounds of clover hay a day and straw is near them all the time. A man with long experience, who has been watching these cattle, says they are putting on three to four pounds a day. They are sure making good money and the reason is that corn prepared in my cooker has far more nutriment value than fed in the ordinary way. Come and see these cattle.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Clarence Hay, son of the late John Hay, one time secretary of state, arrived by rail today from Galveston, a refugee from Vera Cruz. He added that there were being sent to Washington telegraphic and written protests concerning the Tampico situation to be followed by a visit from a committee representing 3,000 American refugees.

Mr. Hay left Mexico April 20th, the day before Vera Cruz fell into American hands. "My final remembrance of Huerta's last day's" said Hay, "was the great fire a day or so before we left. The president watched the flames from the back seat of his machine."

General Balstein was director of the combat. M. O'Ailliere was the first to shoot then M. Caillaux who had not yet raised his arm discharged his pistol in the air and the affair was over.

MANY WILL GATHER FOR INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL

Vast Number of Organizations Will Have Delegates in Rome for Discussion of Human Betterment Problems.

Rome, May 4.—Since the first appearance of women in the field of politics and social reform there has never been such a demonstration as that which will take place in Rome this week, when hundreds of women of many nationalities, bound together by their common interest in all movements having for their object the betterment of humanity, will assemble here to take part in the meeting of the International Council of Women.

The magnitude of the organizations which will participate in the conference is hard to realize, and compared with their modest beginnings their growth is 14 1/2 short of miraculous. Equal suffrage organizations, temperance societies, educational unions and reform organizations of many kinds will be represented. Delegates from 21 countries will be in attendance, and the total membership of the organizations they will represent is estimated at nearly 7,000,000.

Thirty years or more ago such a thing as an international council of women was unknown. In Europe and America there are many organizations of women existing for the purpose of promoting social and other reforms, but they were entirely distinct from one another and worked independently. Even in those days there were some who dreamed of linking all the societies together in a bond of union, to found one grand non-sectarian, non-partisan and non-sectional organization to include all movements designed to better humanity. In 1888, largely through the efforts of the late Susan B. Anthony and other American women leaders, the dream "came true." The International Council of Women was formed and its success was assured from the start. Once every five years since the organization of the international council the brightest lights among the women of the world have come together to review women's progress and to plan new activities.

The Countess of Aberdeen is the president of the council and will preside over the sessions to be held here, beginning next Tuesday. Both the United States and Canada will be represented by large delegations. Other countries that will have delegates at the council are Great Britain, Germany, Sweden, Turkey, Bulgaria, Denmark, Holland, Italy, Norway, France, Austria, Belgium, Australia, China India and Japan. The American delegation is headed by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, of Philadelphia, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association, and Mrs. Kate Waller Bennett, of Virginia, who is president of the National Council of Women of the United States.

The sessions of the international council will continue one week. Fore most among the topics of general interest scheduled for consideration are international peace and arbitration, the rights of women to the ballot, the suppression of the "white slave" traffic, the improvement of the public health, the protection of immigrants and measures of legislation concerning the general welfare of women and their legal position.

I seek the high class eating thing, when my old stomach gives a wrench, and there the waiters proudly point to bolls of fares got up in French. I order this and order that, in eagerness my face to feed, and oftentimes I break a slat pronouncing words I cannot read. And as I eat the costly greens, prepared by an imported cook, to other times and other scenes with reminiscent eyes I look. My mother never was in France, no foreign largon did she speak, but how I used to sing and dance a week! Oh, they were crisp and brown and sweet and they were luscious and sublime, and I could stand around and eat a half a bushel at a time. The doughnuts that our mothers made! They were the goods, they were the stuff; we used to eat them with a spade and simply couldn't get enough. And when I face imported grub, all loaded down with Choctaw names, I sigh and wish I had a tub of doughnuts made by old-time dames. I do not care for fancy frills, but when the doughnut dish appears I kick my hind feet over the thrills and whoop for joy, and wag my ears.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE MURDER OF DR. CRONIN

Was One of the Most Memorable Crimes That Ever Stirred Chicago.

Chicago, May 4.—Many Chicagoans recalled today as the 25th anniversary of one of the most memorable crimes that ever stirred this city—the murder of Dr. Patrick H. Cronin. The murder and the sensational trials that followed attracted attention not only throughout America but on the other side of the Atlantic as well.

Dr. Cronin was prominent in Irish-American circles in Chicago and was actively interested in the so-called Irish cause. On the night of May 4, 1889, he was lured from his office in South Clark street to a lonely cottage in North Ashland avenue. There he was beaten to death, as alleged, by members of the secret political organization known as the Clan-na-Gael. The conspirators had spent weeks in planning the act. One reason given for the crime was that Dr. Cronin was a spy and had betrayed secrets of the clan, an organization devoted to Ireland's freedom. Another explanation offered was that the physician had evidence that a member of the clan had stolen funds raised for the Irish cause and that this member, fearing exposure, had instigated the crime.

The news of the murder and the reasons given for it created intense excitement throughout the country. Among those arrested were several Chicagoans of prominence, but the evidence against them was deemed insufficient on which to hold them. Of those who were finally brought to trial Daniel Coughlin, Patrick O'Sullivan and Martin Burke were found guilty and were sentenced to life imprisonment. John Kunze was sentenced to three years' imprisonment. It was freely admitted at the time that those who were convicted were merely tools and that the real conspirators were never brought to justice. Burke and O'Sullivan died in prison. Coughlin was granted a new trial and many years later was acquitted.

HONOR FOR ILLINOIS CHEMISTRY DEPARTMENT.

Durrell Hatfield Receives Assistantship in Chemistry at U. of I.

Professor Sherman Leavitt of Illinois college received a letter recently from W. A. Noyes, head of the chemical department at the University of Illinois, announcing the appointment of Durrell Hatfield of the college senior class, to an assistantship in chemistry for the coming term. Prof. Noyes announces that the position places the recipient in line for substantial promotions. This is the second time a pupil of Mr. Leavitt has received recognition this year at the state university, the college graduate scholarship having been received by Robbins Russell several months since.

At the recent meeting of the State Federation of Colleges at Bloomington President Rammelkamp was informed by Dean Babcock of the State university that Prof. Noyes had completed a classification of the Illinois schools of collegiate rank with respect to the strength of their departments of chemistry and that Illinois college had been classed with the first four. Illinois ranks thus with Knox, Wesleyan and Lake Forest with regard to chemistry. This classification reflects considerable honor upon the college and the professor of chemistry and the students of his department are justifiably pleased thereby.

Catarrh is Often Deep Seated

Local Congestions May Indicate Much Internal Inflammation.

Just because catarrh affects the nose and throat, few people realize how deep-seated it may be until it creeps into the bronchial tubes and settles down into the lungs. The way to treat catarrh is to recognize the fact that it is in the blood.

And there is only one blood purifier that can be safely used. It is S. S. S., the most powerful, the most searching, the most assimilative blood remedy known today, for it is not a mineral, but a vegetable remedy. The medicinal components of S. S. S. are relatively just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritive properties of the grains, meats, sugars and fats of foods. Any local irritating influence in the blood is rejected by the tissue cells and eliminated by reason of the stimulating influence of S. S. S.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a "sense of bodily relief" that proves how completely catarrh often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a reliable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Co., 532 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Carefully avoid any and all substitutes for S. S. S. There is nothing "just as good."

EAGLES ARE VICTORIOUS IN SUNDAY CONTEST WITH BARRY

Win Game in Ninth by Cannon's Lucky Smash Into Left—Sims Allows But Four Hits.

Cannon's lucky smash into left field, which the wind carried over Brown's reach, brought in the only score in the Eagles contest with Barry Sunday afternoon and gave the locals the game, 1 to 0. Each team had several opportunities to score but poor baserunning and bad batting judgment prevented the tallies.

The pitchers on both sides put up a good article of twirling. Sims struckout ten men, Likes six and although the latter allowed nine hits in the seven innings that he was on the mound, he kept them well scattered and only two runners got as far as third.

Denny, the first man up in the ninth, walked and was advanced to second when DeFrates was hit by a pitched ball. Cannon then made a hit to left, scoring Denny with the winning run.

Next Sunday the Eagles will play Divernon.

AWAITS METHODISTS.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 4.—Interest in Methodist church circles now centers in the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South which will begin its sessions in this city Wednesday. This will be the largest denominational gathering to be held in the south this year. The conference will continue in session until May 28. Local plans for the accommodation of the visitors are completed.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

Ralph Comstock, for whom Detroit paid the Millers $10,000 last year, is to be banished to the tall and uncult. The slippy elm artist does not jump to Stovall's Kaffee—he will be sent to the Tiger farm, Providence, in the International league. Before Detroit grabbed Comstock the Cantillions offered him to Comiskey. The Old Roman motored from Chicago to Minneapolis and watched Ralph and his spitter in action and concluded he was not yet ripe for the big show.

George Horine's world's record, 6 feet 6 5/8 inches for the high jump, was broken on Saturday at Berkeley, Cal., by Edward Beeson, who cleared the barrier at 6 feet 7 5/8 inches.

"Bill Murray," the Portuguese middleweight, who a few weeks ago stood off Jimmy Clabby on the coast in a twenty-round argument, is on his way to New York to box an unknown, presumably George Chip or Frank Klaus. "Murray" is said to be a likely looking miller, and while in Chicago Sunday he expressed a desire to clinch a meeting with either Mike Gibbons or Packey McFarland. It is not likely that either of these boxers will consent, as both are recognized as welters. The Portuguese is willing to make 145 or 147 pounds ringside for either one of the ring phantoms—3 to 5 pounds above the scale.

Frank Mantell, Pacific coast middleweight, has been substituted for Gunboat Smith to box Bob Moha at Milwaukee next Monday night. The weight will be the middleweight limit, 158 pounds. Mantell is a handy boxing tool and the bout will be well worth the while.

Chink Mattick has recovered from his recent injuries and is again in the Blues' line-up. His fielding and base-running are up to their usual brilliancy, but he has not as yet recovered his batting glim.

"The world do move." Jimmy Sheppard, a former important cog in the old Cub machine, now manager of the Cleveland American association team, was banished from the ball pit at Kaw's on Sunday because he disputed one of Umpire Johnstone's strike decisions.

The sport loving public will sympathize with Eddie McGoorty, who is now on the Pacific ocean in a race with death. His mother, who has been in frail health for several months, is nearing the end, because of an uncontested decision of the lunacy board at Oshkosh, Wis., a few days ago which sent her husband to the state asylum for the insane. McGoorty, pere, twenty years ago, was the best rough-and-tumble fighter in the northwest. He also was a grappler of ability and at one time wrestled Evan Lewis, the strangler.

"Chris" McFarland, who away back in the late 60's and early 70's was a baseball star with Al Reach, George and Harry Wright, Asa Brainard and Cal McVey, answered the summons of the Great Empire at Holidaysburg, Penn., on Sunday. Funeral services will be held today, and many of the old timers are expected to be present at the obsequies.

Ty Cobb is experiencing an unusual sensation this season. The Peash is hitting for an average of .240. Switch the line-up, placing Sam Crawford elsewhere than a follow-up for Cobb, and the Georgian will also fall down in the run-register.

Larry Lajoie's batting eye also is on the blink. The American league's latest bulletin shows the big Frenchman is clouting them for an average of only .209.

Roscy-checked Tom Daly replaced Jack Fournier in the Sox line-up Sunday and signalled his return by cracking out two corking timely hits.

Mr. Ward, who does not allow his team of Brooklyn Feds to play Sunday ball, helped swell the crowd at the Sox-Browns game in St. Louis to 11,000 of the faithful. In the days of baseball peace this sized crowd would have been considered only a handful in the Mound City. With a team that is putting up a fairly good game, Col. Hezles is deserving of better things.

Schalk, the heady Sox backstop, appears to be growing stale under the continuous grind. He is also badly banged up, and his new-found habit of pinking baserunners in the back it is feared will necessitate a short rest.

Come-back George McQuillan is serving the best ball of any hurler in the National league. His work this season has had much to do in keeping the Pirates at the head of the parade. George is a far ways from the "old spay" class yet. He has his wife convinced he is safe on the sunnyside of 30.

A big delegation of baking powder traveling salesmen attended the game between the Chifeds and the tall end Pittfeds at Chicago Sunday. That sort of a crowd ought to encourage a "rise" almost any place, and judging from the number of two-base, three-base and home run hits in that game, it did that very thing for Tinker's men.

Why the Sox are chasing the rain-bow can easily be explained when the batting averages of the team are consulted. Strength in the pitchers cannot be denied. But good hurling at all times needs support, something the White Sox staff is not getting. The American league averages, issued a few days ago, gives

OUTFIELDER SHANK, NEW HEAVY HITTER ON GRIFFITH'S TEAM.

Outfielder Shank of the Washington American Baseball team is coming into the limelight as a heavy hitter. His latest exploit of note was to clear up the bases with a long hit to deep center in New York. The three runs that he drove in won the game.

DR. REED'S HEALTH IMPROVING
Rev. Horace Reed has been at the Woman's College a few days recuperating from a series of bodily ailments which have pulled down his fine constitution. Few men have done the vast amount of work he has accomplished and his strenuous efforts are telling on him. He was somewhat improved yesterday though he was suffering from a very slight stroke of paralysis which is apparently yielding to treatment.

The Sox standing as follows:

Collins	341
Blackburn	259
Cicotte	250
Schalk	214
Bodie	214
Daly	212
Chase	186
Lord	184
Weaver	146

This standing does not include the series at Detroit, else the figures would have been much lower. Dem. mitt, who is credited with twelve times at bat, as a pinch hitter and as a regular, is credited with an average of .417.

Notwithstanding a lavish outlay of the mazuma to induce jumpers from the big league, Stovall's Kansas City outlaws are giving Larry Schaffey's Buffeds a stiff argument for the cellar in the Federal league race.

SOME RECOLLECTIONS OF THE GREAT REBELLION

Franklin and Nashville.

While Sherman was slashing around the lower part of Georgia and preparing to present a big city to A. Lincoln as a Christmas gift, Gen. George H. Thomas was trying to prevent Gen. John B. Hood from presenting Nashville to President Jeff Davis as a kind of stand off in the presentation business. While Sherman was a very successful general, there was considerable imbecility and ecstacy in his make up. In that respect he was a good deal like John M. Corse, who commanded the garrison during the desperate battle of Allatoona Pass. "I am minus a jaw and part of my cheek bone, but I am able to whip all h— yet!" He was the big I in all that wild red tempest. The man behind the gun was an insignificant factor in that whirlwind of destruction according to the way he told Sherman of his victory. Corse and Sherman were two of a kind along the line of bombastic furious warfare, the only difference being that the latter had a brother who was United States senator and stood very close to the throne, which meant more than the present generation knows anything about, and perhaps cares less. While I greatly admire Sherman and his glib-edged record, more especially that part pertaining to the Atlanta campaign, I am free to confess, without the fear of court martial here or hereafter, that there were greater, safer and saner commanders than old Tecumseh, one of whom was a plain, silent, modest, unpretending, loyal defender of the flag, whose deeds speak for him and not himself for his deeds. That man was Major General George Henry Thomas, "The Rock of Chickamauga," and the only prominent Union commander who never lost a battle from the start to the close of the fratricidal strife. More than once his loyalty was questioned because of being a native of Virginia, the same as was Robert E. Lee, but all the shafts of malice aimed at the grand old soldier fell harmless at his feet and he rose superior far and above and beyond all those who tried to tarnish his name and reputation on account of being southern born. His fealty was tested at Mill Springs, at Shiloh, at the siege of Corinth, at Stone River, at Chickamauga, at Mission Ridge and all the battles up to the fall of Atlanta. He never sought promotion and never refused it. He was free from the curse of intrigue and jealousy which preyed so generally throughout the entire army. Only a few days before the terrific battle of Nashville Grant had selected a man to supersede him because he was "too slow." Thomas understood the conditions that confronted him far better than Grant or Stanton or Lincoln. During weeks of suspense and annoyance he had been preparing to receive Hood, who, after he was thrashed out of Georgia, was heading direct for Nashville with his entire army of at least 50,000 men. Sherman reserved 60,000 to go on his parade from Atlanta to the sea and had sent the 4th and 23rd corps to reinforce Thomas at Nashville. Gen. Schofield had command of these two corps and it was up and tuck between Hood and Schofield as to which should get to Nashville first. Between Columbia and Franklin the contending armies were often in sight of each other. In the meantime Thomas was working with night and main organizing brigades and divisions out of all sorts of material—quarter master's clerks, teamsters, convalescents, pioneer corps, dismounted cavalry. Never did any commander work under more discouraging circumstances than did Thomas at Nashville and never in all the long drawn out contest was there more at stake than at this time. It was the darkest hour in the history of this republic. The fate of the nation was hanging in the balance. Greenbacks were worth about 37 cents on the dollar and had Hood succeeded the chances were they would have been worthless, for there would have been nothing to prevent him from marching to Louisville, Cincinnati and other important cities, levying tribute as he moved his half starved host in grey, and the tribute levied would have been plenty even to the limit. But fate and General Thomas willed it otherwise.

Grant was growing irritable over the slow movements, or rather what he considered a lack of moving energy on the part of Thomas, and repeatedly ordered him to attack Hood, who was entrenched in front of the city. At the very time Grant was issuing his imperative orders all of middle Tennessee was in the grip of the ice king. The hills and valleys were encrusted with a thick coating of sleet and pedestrianism was practically out of the question. Schofield with the 4th and 23rd corps was slowly retreating, with Hood pressing him hard. On the morning of November 30 Schofield drew up his two corps in front of Franklin, some 25 miles south of Nashville, and waited the oncoming of the men in grey. And they came and what followed on that day was one of the most desperate battles of the long and bloody list. For the number engaged it was without doubt the most sanguinary in the annals of the rebellion. Hood's veterans fought like demons and charged and stormed the blue lines repeatedly and were repulsed with awful slaughter. Many of the attacking forces fell dead in their own yards. Eight or ten general officers fell on that fatal field and a proportionate number of the rank and file went down in that awful carnage. The blue army fought behind breastworks and the mortality roll was less than half of that of the enemy. Among the rebel slain were Major General Cheatham and General Pat. Cleburn, who commanded Bragg's right at Mission Ridge and Tunnel Hill, and repeatedly repulsed Sherman's corps on the extreme left of our line. Cleburne was on of the best fighters in the grey army. After the set to at Franklin Schofield retreated and joined the forces under Thomas, which increased his army to at least 50,000 men, including a large cavalry force under Gen. J. H. Wilson. In the meantime Grant was still insisting, ordering and urging Thomas to move. And Thomas was waiting on Jupiter Pluvius, that is to say he was waiting for the ice to melt so that he could move effectually and strike the blow that would count. At one time Grant came near going to Nashville in order to take command, but it so happened that he met Gen. John A. Logan at City Point, Va., and commissioned him to go and supersede Thomas in command. Logan started in obedience to orders and had gotten as far as Louisville, where he learned that Thomas had moved, and that what was left of Hood's army had also moved out and away from the bloody trenches occupied by his grey battalions. The battle lasted two days, December 15-16, 1864. Hood's army was so completely annihilated that it never got together again as an organization. Broken and utterly discouraged, the rebels deserted by the thousands and Hood's fame as a fighter had received its everlasting quietus. The defenders of Nashville at that decisive contest consisted of the 4th, 23rd and two divisions of the 16th corps, a division of cavalry, and a corps consisting of quartermaster clerks and general round up of various odds and ends of all sorts and conditions of combatants and non-combatants. It is hard to overestimate the importance of this victory and still harder to estimate the character of the genius who won it in the face of so many difficulties. Thomas not only won it but in the winning he saved the north from invasion and ruined as fine an army as ever marched behind St. Andrew's cross, and from that hour the doom of the confederacy was unalterably sealed, and every man killed after the battle of Nashville was murdered, for, at no time after, was there the shadow of hope for the dying confederacy which had received its death blow at the hands of the immortal Rock of Chickamauga.

Among other Illinois regiments which took part in the battle of Nashville was the 114th, and its old battle flag, now stored in Memorial hall in the state capitol, is a mute witness to the terror and the glory of that splendid victory. Up near the top its staff was riddled by rebel lead and its colors were shot-torn and stained by powder as it was carried close up to the enemy's works and those who fought and rallied around it on that memorable occasion have reason to feel proud of the record they made. A few years ago there were quite a number of that regiment residing in Jacksonville, but most of them have joined the silent majority on the other shore. The only ones I can now recall now living are A. P. Vasconcellos, a prominent grocer on East State street, Robert Stephenson, and our venerable friend, Benjamin R. Upham, whom everybody loves as well as he loves Old Glory. It is said of him that during the blistering days around Vicksburg, in June, '63, he ministered to many a boy in blue who was burning up with wasting fever. Ice cold lemonade was given to them without money and without price by this prince among men. So he became a good Samaritan and many of the old boys who lived through the siege and survived the perils of the conflict continue to rise up and call him blessed, and hope he may continue to save till the skin of a gooseberry makes a shroud for him. So note it be.

The regiment was recruited entirely in the three adjoining counties of Cass, Menard and Sangamon. The first colonel of that regiment was James W. Judy of Tallula, and is yet living, as is also the second colonel, John F. King of Springfield, both of whom have passed their 80th milestone. Lieutenant Colonel Samuel F. Shoup commanded the regiment during the battle of Nashville and until it was mustered out in August, 1865. It is worthy of note that during one of the many desperate charges made by the regiment in front of Nashville on the second day of the battle the boys of the 114th captured a rebel battery and turned the guns on the retreating foe and thus aided in the utter demoralization of the enemy, who flew, panic stricken, from the gory field so bravely and fairly won by the "Rock of Chickamauga" and the heroic rank and file who fought and bled and suffered on that far-off winter day nearly a half century ago.

at Bull Run aroused the north from its semi-somnolent condition and the people who were lulled into a state of fancied security began to realize that it was more than a breakfast spell—one thousand four hundred and six "breakfast spells" would pass before the drama was brought to a close. The awful disaster at Bull Run aroused the nation as it had never been aroused before, and scarcely had the echo of the thundering guns of that battle died away before there was a call for 500,000 more and as the months rolled on there were other calls and still later more calls, and as the red tempest continued to increase in intensity there were yet more demands for the ranks of those gone before, until the grand total reached more than a million—more than two million—more than two million and a half—the appalling number of two million seven hundred and seventy-eight thousand signed the muster rolls of the Union army before the furling of the banners of the lost cause at Appomattox. Do you grasp the enormity of the conflict? After Shiloh Sherman told Lincoln and Secretary of War Cameron that it would take at least a million men to suppress the rebellion. Cameron had secret service men watching Sherman because he thought and said he was insane. Even wise old Tecumseh missed his prophesy more than a million. Think of a battle line extending from the Potomac to the Gulf of Mexico! Think of the rivers of human blood that was to crimson the soil of fifteen southern states and even the soil of the old Keystone state, where was fought the crowning conflict of the 19th century, where more than twice as many men were killed and wounded as there were men, women and children in Jacksonville. Gettysburg was the crowning act in the bloody drama and there were eleven others nearly as appalling in human sacrifices. Think of the unparalleled losses under Grant in Virginia during the summer of '64, when 60,000 men were killed and wounded in 30 days. From Washington to Richmond was one vast battlefield over which hundreds of thousands of men marched and counter-marched, fought, bled and died, thousands of who sleep in unmarked graves. Saving the Union meant the destruction of 400,000 loyal lives. It meant countless thousands of widows and orphans all over the north and all over the south, from Minnesota to the Gulf of Mexico, and from Maine to the Golden Gate. It meant a war debt almost beyond computation—a pension roll that calls for more than $150,000,000 annually—a soldiers' and sailors' home in every state in the Union, beside several national homes for disabled volunteers to take care of the veterans of all wars from 1846 up to and including the Spanish-American war and the Philippine insurrection. All this should give the present generation at least a faint conception of what it has cost in blood and tears and money to keep the old flag in the sky. Of all the strifes that ever cursed the earth civil war is the crowning calamity of all. It divides families and kindred and sets them to grasping at each others' throats, arrays fathers against sons and brothers against brothers; it engenders strife and hatred that can only be satisfied by blood—often the same blood that courses in one's own veins. As an illustration of this fact I will mention two or three cases right here at home. Right where the court house stands there lived a family named Bristow. The father in antebellum days was a prominent Democratic politician and for several years was circuit clerk of Morgan county. He had three sons.

FORWARD MOVEMENT IN STOCK MARKET RESUMED MONDAY

Best Showing Made Following Wilson's Announcement of Appointments For Federal Reserve Board.

New York, May 4.—The forward movement in the stock market which was in progress all last week except during Saturday's small reaction was resumed today. Quotations advanced steadily until the leading stocks were 1 to 2 points higher, although these gains were cut down by a reaction in the last hour.

The best showing of the day was made following the announcement of President Wilson's appointments for the federal reserve board. The street was well pleased with today's announcements. Railroad stocks were the most prominent in the days results. Shares of the grain-carrying roads in particular were in request, benefitting from the report of crop conditions. The improvement in sentiment toward railroad stocks caused by the comparatively good March returns was strengthened also by advices from the west to the effect that the roads were moving a good volume of business.

Despite the fact that a gold movement to Europe has begun and notwithstanding the comparatively small gain in cash in last week's bank statement, there was a further decline today in rate for both call and time loans.

MILLION DOLLAR HIGHWAY

FOR AUTO TOURISTS.
Grand Junction, Colo., May 4.— Automobile tourists from the middle western and eastern states can travel over a million dollar highway from Grand Junction, Colo., to Green River, Utah, this year and in 1915.

This highway, which lies straight and smooth as an arrow for miles, with a surface hardened into a genuine turnpike, is the abandoned grade of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, built from this point to Salt Lake City back in the eighties.
Later a new railroad line was built to save a few miles in distance and to lower the grade which, although steep in places for a locomotive, is modest for an automobile to climb.

The old railroad turnpike practically parallels the "desert" road which was traveled by the Indiana auto tourists in 1913. It could not be used last season because of unbridged washes and unfilled gullies.

Grand Junction, a city of less than 10,000 people, has just raised $10,000, however, and has engineers and gangs of road builders at work filling the gullies and bridging the washes.

With this road now nearly completed, having a surface of from 12 to 20 feet wide, it is estimated that an unbroken speed of 30 miles per hour can be maintained for long stretches.

Albert E. Curry of Pisgah was visiting friends in the city Sunday.

FOREIGN BUYING HAS BIG BULLISH INFLUENCE ON WHEAT

Delay in Argentine Corn Shipments Makes Corn Market Strong—Realizing Sales Bring Reaction in Oats.

Chicago, May 4.—Foreign buying here and an important bullish influence today on wheat. In the end, the market was easy but 1/2 cfr to 1/2 cfr net higher. Corn closed 1/2 to 1/2 cfr up, oats off a shade to 1/2 and provisions with a gain of 1/2 cfr to 7/8 cfr.

In the wheat trade it was virtually conceded on both sides that the situation was a case of phenomenal harvest promise in this country for 1914 against fairly bullish conditions throughout the rest of the world.
May wheat bulged so suddenly at one time as to put shorts into a good deal of a flurry. The upturn, however, attracted much hard winter wheat here from the west, purchases to arrive being 450,000 bushels.
Tightness in regard to the May delivery was also partly relieved by Chicago sales of 650,000 bushels of contract wheat to go to store. Delay in Argentine corn shipments a condition due to heavy rains starting afresh, made the corn market here strong. Argentine damage estimates were raised 10 per cent. It was also pointed out by the bulls that the former big stocks here had been more than cut in half and were now down to normal. Some of the consequent upturn in prices though disappeared as a result of profit-taking in the last hour. Oats at the outset were firm with other grain but the good outlook for the growing crop led to realizing sales by holders and brought about a reaction.

Provisions lost much of an early advance. The dullness of the cash trade offset to some extent the effect of grain strength and of the lighter run of hogs west.

THIS WOMAN'S SICKNESS

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Baltimore, Md.—"I am more than glad to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me.

I suffered dreadful pains and was very irregular. I became alarmed and sent for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until I was without a cramp or pain and felt like another person, and it has now been six months since I took any medicine at all. I hope my little note will assist you in helping other women. I now feel perfectly well and in the best of health."—Mrs. AUGUST W. KONDNER, 1632 Hollins Street, Baltimore, Md.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Jacksonville Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Jacksonville citizen:

G. V. Skinner, blacksmith, 853 South East street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I am convinced that Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine I have had. One of our family suffered a great deal from kidney weakness and backache and was relieved in every way by Doan's Kidney Pills."

"When your back is lame—Remember the name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Skinner had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CITY COUNCIL WILL GET AFTER ICE DEALERS AGREEMENT

Mayor Davis Believes Proposition to Sell Only For Coupons is Improper.—Bids for New Boiler Received.

At the Monday meeting of the council a communication from Mayor Davis was read condemning local ice dealers for refusing to sell ice except with coupons and suggesting certain action because of the attitude of the dealers. The recommendation was concurred in by the council. Bids for a new boiler at the light plant were opened and referred to Com. Brennan for examination and report. There were two bids and the lower was made by Bernard Gause.

The council was called to order at the usual hour and regular routine business was transacted. A report was read showing the inspection of the boilers at the city pumping station and no special defects were pointed out. A communication was read asking the council to send a representative to a convention of city controllers to be held in Milwaukee, June 11-14. This was received and placed on file. Reports of officers were presented and were as given below. Mayor Davis presented a communication relative to the ice situation in Jacksonville and on motion of Mr. Knollenberg, seconded by Mr. Brennan the council concurred unanimously.

This communication was as follows:
After the Ice Men.
Jacksonville, Ill., May 4, 1914.
To the Honorable Commissioners of the City Council of the City of Jacksonville.

Gentlemen—
It has come to my attention that the local retail ice dealers, Messrs. Snyder and Gates have formed a combination to regulate the sale of ice. Since May 1st, the drivers of these firms have been notifying their respective customers that in order to get ice they must purchase coupon ice books.

As you well know, ice has in the past few years become a necessity instead of a luxury. You also know that there are many citizens of Jacksonville who can buy ice and pay cash for it as they need it who cannot afford to buy a coupon ice book.

I have a particular case to support the above. A few days ago a woman in the First ward who had a sick baby wanted to buy five cents worth of ice and could not get it, being told that she must purchase a book. This seems to be not only an unjust, but a high handed proceeding.

In talking with a number of citizens in regard to this matter there seems to be a well founded opinion that it may be one for the consideration of the state utility commission.

In view of the foregoing facts it seems to me that this council should take some decisive step in the matter. I would therefore recommend that you instruct the city attorney to begin at once to draft an ordinance providing for an ice dealers license and that it also instruct the attorney to revise the weights and measures ordinance. The latter should be done in order that citizens who are compelled to buy ice will get full one hundred pounds for the price charged instead of standing for the shrinkage which on hot days amounts to considerable.

All of which I present for your consideration and with the hope that you will take immediate action.

Respectfully submitted,

George Davis, mayor.
Mr. Knollenberg made a motion that property approved bills be paid when funds were available and said that the money for the January pay roll was now ready. Mr. Newman asked when money would be ready for other pay rolls as he said that in his opinion labor should be given the preference to all other matters in meeting obligations. Mr. Knollenberg said that if collection was pushed on the vehicle license that it would possible make another pay roll some time soon. He said that no bills were being paid except those in compliance with contracts.

Water and Light Bills First.
Mayor Davis mentioned that the city records would show that early during the present administration, in the life time of Mr. Brown that an agreement was made to pay the bills of the water and light departments whether anything else was paid promptly or not because of the importance to the city of keeping these departments in as good working order as possible.

Mr. Engel said that a number of the firms who bid on the fire truck were asking for the return of their checks and that he would therefore make a motion that all the bids be rejected and the checks returned. Mr. Newman said that his son had been notified by the Nott Mfg. Co., that they would never again make as low a bid as they had authorized in the present instance. Mr. Newman thought however that the city could get along very nicely without a truck at present, and suggested the matter should not come up again during this administration.

Mr. Newman asked about the agreement with the C. P. & St. L., and said that he understood the company wanted to move their main track about 3 feet when the side track on Illinois avenue is taken up. He wanted to know of 3 feet meant a still greater distance and Mayor Davis replied that he had been on Illinois avenue with Mr. Imgrund and the 3 feet was sufficient.

Mr. Newman also asked what had become of the proposed ordinance for making railroads furnish lights at street crossings and asked also about the matter of Mather street opening.

Then Mr. Newman brought up the question of the franchises which he said had been pending now for more than two years. Mayor Davis said that franchises had been received from Mr. Chubbuck and were in the hands of city attorney Thompson, which the traction company had eliminated and that Mr. Thompson had agreed to turn over the franchises by Wednesday of this week. The mayor said further that he wanted to look over the franchises first for a few days and that then they would be able to get the council to be ready for them to consider.

Mr. Newman remarked in his opinion it was important to get the franchises settled before any street paving was done as a number of people believed that if the city notified the company to pave within its tracks that such a notification constituted a recognition of the company's rights and would affect the franchise situation.

Mayor Davis replied that he had always maintained that notice to pave in the tracks would have no bearing on the franchises and that he proposed to have before the council just as soon as possible an ordinance requiring the paving of East State street whether or not the franchises had been acted upon.

The returns from the recent election were canvassed and showed the total vote for the general law was 617, and against it 1227. It showed also the total vote for board members as follows, Wells 496; Blair 213; Rogerson 463; Badger 229. Bids were opened for the new boiler for the light plant. The McNaull boiler Mfg. Co., of Toledo, Ohio, offered to furnish the boiler in accordance with the specifications for $3800 and the bid filed by Bernard Gause for the boiler was $2800. Bids were referred to Commissioner Brennan to consider and make a recommendation to the council.

A GREAT SUNDAY

SCHOOL RALLY.
Among the successful Sunday school rallies Sunday the one at the Christian church in Litterberry was a great success. The attendance was much interfered with by the rain but still there were 149 present, which speaks well for the school. There was a continuous service.

It was attended with much interest. The pastor, Rev. Ira C. Smith, spoke on the subject, "The Boy Who Went Wrong", and gave an admirable address. The other features were all good, especially the music, both vocal and instrumental.

At Oak Ridge, a school under the patronage or leadership of members of the Litterberry church there was also a fine attendance with continuous exercises. It was in the afternoon and the attendance was 86 which was very good considering all circumstances.

There Rev. Mr. Smith spoke on "The Glorious Gospel" and his address was fine and elicited many favorable comments.

Arthur Swain, county Sunday school association president, was also present and a fine time generally was enjoyed and much good accomplished.

MEXICAN INVASION HAZARDOUS TASK.

Expert Says U. S. Would Lose 90,000 on Vera Cruz-City off Mexico March.

Washington, May 5.—Army officers whose visions of a possible invasion of Mexico from Vera Cruz with a view to capture the City of Mexico along the route followed by Gen. Wladfield Scott's intrepid army in the 40s are not underrating the difficulties in the way. On the contrary, some officers believe that such an invasion would prove very costly to an army. An officer of experience in war, who has a knowledge of the country between Vera Cruz and the City of Mexico, states the situation as follows:

"I know the country of Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico and I know it well. Going through it for pleasure I have at the same time studied it with the eye of a military man. There is 300 miles of it and to my knowledge there is not a route in the world so admirably adapted to defense, one presenting so many obstacles to an attacking force, hills or mountains, ravines or gullies everywhere permit a greatly inferior force to retard the progress of a great army and inflict heavy losses almost with impunity.

"In my opinion—and I speak after careful study and advisedly—an army invading from Vera Cruz with 100,000 men would arrive at the City of Mexico with no more than 10,000. The invention of smokeless powder makes previous campaigns useless for comparison. The Americans under Scott and the French under Bazaine could see their enemy or could locate him from the smoke of his rifle or cannon. If a man in their ranks was shot his comrades knew how to avenge him. The vengeance aroused by a shot from ambush could be satisfied.

"But smokeless powder, used in a country incomparably adapted for guerrilla fighting, leaves the men at a loss to locate their adversaries. Men in the ranks would fall and the lust of battle would be aroused; they could not stand their losses. They could not scour the whole country for a fleeting foe whose shots left nothing visible. Consider if you will, the lessons of the Boer war, and wonder, as I do, if Lookout Mountain could have been taken had not the rebels, themselves unseen, lighting behind rocks, disclosed their positions by the discharge of their guns."

It is not intended to abolish bull fights or lotteries or to interfere in any way with the customs and amusements of the people.

Bridge Reported Blown Up.

It was reported today that General Gustavo Maas, the Mexican commander had blown up the San Francisco bridge on the narrow gauge railroad leading to Mexico City. This was not confirmed at the headquarters of Brig. Gen. Funston, though it was known there that the federals had mined the structures along the road. It also was reported that another section of the tracks had been torn up. The American consuls at Frontera, Progreso, Puerto Mexico and Carmen have been ordered to turn over their interests to the French consuls. A number of British subjects left Vera Cruz for the federal today having been reinsured by the news brought here by the refugees.

Brigadier General Funston today for the first time went beyond the American lines encircling the city. He proceeded to the waterworks station at El Tejar, nine miles out on a visit of inspection, making the trip on a short train of flat cars which bore an escort of a company of infantry. With the general were Col. Benjamin Alvord of the adjutant general's department and Lieut. Wm. G. Ball, the general's aide de camp and several newspaper correspondents. On the way out at the posts forming the connecting links between the inner lines and the outposts American sentinels stood watching vigilantly on slight eminences ready to give alarm in case anything unusual happened.

As an army regulation had been drawn up by the general that no military honors were to be paid while the army was in the field there were no formalities.

At El Tejar the general found all the men composing Major John H. Russell's outpost in the best spirits. The force had been strengthened since the alarm on Saturday by a battery of artillery and some additional marines. The village is typical of thousands in Mexico. The school house is occupied as headquarters. For all supplies furnished to the troops the villagers are paid promptly and their good will seemed to have been won by the fact that the American soldiery ask permission before even digging a hole.

HOME OF STANSFIELD BALDWIN IS BURNED TO GROUND SUNDAY

Modern Residence North of City Destroyed by Fire.—Insurance was Carried on House and Contents Were Partly Saved.

Fire which broke out shortly after noon Sunday completely destroyed the residence of Stansfield Baldwin, north of the city. The building was covered by insurance to the extent of $2,000 and $1,000 were saved. Mr. Baldwin is living at present in a machine house which he has fitted up and he and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Silberman, who are employed on the place, will continue to occupy these temporary quarters while he plans a new house and rebuilds.

The fire was discovered in an upstairs room at the southeast corner of the building and seemed to be coming from the wall. It was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Silberman, and an alarm was turned in at once to as many neighbors as could be reached. Mr. Baldwin was away from home when the fire broke out. He was on his way home from Centenary church and at first thought the fire was at the house of a neighbor. He found neighbors at work with buckets on arriving, but soon saw that the house was doomed.

The house contained ten rooms and was modern in construction. It had been built eight or ten years ago and cost from $4,000 to $5,000. Practically all the goods on the lower floor were saved and some from the second story.

FREE CORN PULLS DOWN PRICES IN ILLINOIS.

B. W. Snow, chief statistician for the Orange Judd Corn Reporting bureau has been looking into the effect of the new tariff measure as related, to corn. This law removed the import duty of fifteen cents a bushel on corn. His conclusions, as pointed out by the Illinois State Journal, is likely to result in far reaching consequences. The statistics show that there has been an enormous amount of corn imported during the past few months and that millions of bushels more are in sight for coming months.

"In recent years we have come to accept our own normal annual requirements for domestic consumption as from 2,800 to 3,000 million bushels. With this market reserved to our own corn growers by reason of an import duty of 15 cents a bushel, the adjustment between domestic supply and domestic demand has been so well maintained that only in years of crop shortage are price movements severe. The removal of this duty, and the willingness of the Argentine farmer to sell his corn at a price below that to which the American farmer has been accustomed, can only result in such a struggle for a part of our own market as well permanently depress the price of our whole crop."

"The beginning of this struggle appears in the imports of foreign corn during the first four months under the new tariff. Last November, with the tariff removed, the corn imports into the United States was 1,632,643 bushels, as against 25,819 in the preceding November. In December last the imports aggregated 2,343,444 bushels, to 637 bushels in the next preceding December. In January of this year 2,554,813 bushels of corn were imported, as against 5,757 bushels in January, 1913. The February import this year was 1,371,596 bushels, whereas in the next preceding January it was a trifling 567 bushels. Thus, in these four months of no tariff, there was imported 7,872,496 bushels as against 32,789 bushels in the corresponding four months the year before."

"Practically all of this comes from Argentina, the tail end of a small crop. The new Argentine crop, shipment of which has now begun, is the largest on record, and many furnish 240 million bushels for export. This new crop is being offered in our eastern seaboard and gulf markets for May-June shipment as much as 10 to 12 cents a bushel below what corn from Mississippi or Missouri river points can now be offered for delivery at same points in May-June. The freight rate upon corn from shipping ports in the center of the Argentine cornfields to New York and Galveston is less than from Chicago to New York, or from Kansas City to Galveston. This makes it possible for Argentine corn to compete with corn from the seaboard for several hundred miles and compete upon an even basis, so far as the amount received by each grower is concerned, with our American grown corn, and in such a competition the control of the market will go, of course, to the producer who is willing to accept the lowest price for his product."

"The point to be emphasized is that the appearance of Argentina in our market is not dependent upon high prices here; it can reach a large part of our market at a freight charge as low or lower than can our own western corn, and it will dominate that part of our market just so long as the Argentine grower sells his product originally for less than the American grower must have."

"It is not a temporary situation, but a permanent economic condition. The surplus in exporting countries is greater than the needs of importing countries. Argentine alone now has an export surplus greater than the present needs of countries heretofore in the importing class. Her corn growing capacity has not yet been tested. Her cost of production, through low wages, smaller land capital investment, and decidedly lower standards of rural living, is below anything our farmers can approximate. Upon the basis of cost of reaching the market, her fields are nearer our seaboard than are the cornfields of Illinois."

AT THE GRAND.
The Musical Stock Company presented the best bill of its engagement at the Grand Monday night, when "The Dutch Justice" was given. Mr. Harry Wolf, the new comedian and producer, who opened an engagement here last Thursday, was seen as the Justice and to say he kept the audience in good humor would be putting it mildly as the audience was in an uproar of laughter from the rise of the curtain to the finale. Mr. Wolf was supported by an excellent company and the work was well deserving of the audience's approval.

Tonight the country store will be given away after the first show. Over fifty presents, from a lady's suit to a toothpick, will be given to persons holding the lucky numbers. Each person passing through the doors from 6:45 o'clock this evening until 8 o'clock will be given a coupon, which entitles them to a chance on all of these presents, given away separately, absolutely free.

ROUND UP DELINQUENTS.
Two squads of militiamen from Co. B, in charge of Sergeants Hatfield and Shepard were sent out Monday night to bring in members who were absent from drill without leave. A large number of places around town were visited and a squad went to Nichols park. The rules regarding attendance at drill are to be enforced more rigidly hereafter and at the regular drill next Monday night every member is expected to be present.

THOUGHT HE WAS STUCK.
Joe Hagan, who was driving an automobile dray wagon for a Murrayville firm Monday had a novel experience. At the foot of a hill some three miles out of the city, the rain stopped him and he proceeded to put on the side curtains and chains to make the trip home. He managed to climb the hill and to his astonishment found that it had not rained on the crest and only a very little sprinkle between that point and Murrayville.

MORE LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION GIVEN EMBARGO ON ARMS

Ban at El Paso is Lifted on Everything With Exception of Guns, Ammunition, Explosives and Aeroplanes.

El Paso, May 4.—Additional instructions received today by customs officials and army officials guarding the border placed a much more liberal construction on the embargo on arms. The ban has been lifted on everything with the exception of guns, ammunition, explosives and aeroplanes.

This ruling will allow the entry into Mexico under proper invoice of uniforms, shoes, saddles, horses, fuel, oils, coal, coke and other articles, hitherto on the embargo list. It is thought this will increase activity on the other side of the border of both peaceful and warlike pursuits.

General Villa's army having undergone recently, severe campaigns is seriously in need of hats, shoes and uniforms. Shipments of these goods held in El Paso under the former interpretation of the embargo may be forwarded to Torreon for use in the campaign under way against Saitillo and Tampico. The entry of coal, coke, fuel, oils and other supplies used in the operation of mine property will afford relief to thousands of Mexicans in the mining camps of Sonora and Chihuahua whose condition has been an acute source of worry to the constitutionalist officials.

When the Americans in Sonora and Chihuahua closed their mines and smelters and crossed the border, thousands of Mexican laborers were thrown out of employment. They had no opportunity to purchase provisions if they had money as the majority of the stores are operated by the mining companies which declined to renew their supplies while the mines were idle.

The lifting of the embargo on mining supplies probably will relieve the necessity for famine measures which the constitutionalists already have undertaken.

REBELS CAPTURE LAUNCH.
Douglas, Ariz., May 4.—A telegram received here by Constitutional Consul Lelievrier from General Alvarado stated that the flagship of General Tellez at Guaymas has made Topolobampo where an unknown vessel with its crew of thirty surrendered to the constitutionalists.

From the description of the vessel, apparently, it is a large gasoline launch.

COUNTESS PRESIDES.
Rome, May 4.—The Countess of Aberdeen, Vicereine of Ireland, presided today over the opening meeting of the Quinquennial assembly of the International Council of Women whose purpose is to review women's progress and to plan new activities. The countess was assisted by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, American suffragette.

Great interest was shown by the delegates in a lecture on the "vote for women" delivered by Dr. Shaw.
